

Integrity Rehab Group is an industry leading therapy management company that partners with physician practices across the nation. In partnering with Olympia Orthopaedic Associates we have become a preferred outpatient orthopedic therapy service provider to the Olympia, WA community. To further support the needs of this community we are looking to add a Physical Therapist to our team that is committed to providing a remarkable patient experience through advancing our vision of coordinating patient-centered care with an emphasis on comprehensive evidence-based treatment. This is enhanced through building integral relationships with our physician partners. Together, we strive to provide exceptional patient outcomes and a positive atmosphere for patient healing while promoting a collaborative and supportive work environment.
